5. What did you like best about the course?

- Automation and data analysis were applicable to my work
- Practicality and preparedness
- Collaborative group problem solving, so learning was easier
- Flexibility (we took a break if necessary, Imre explained the concepts several times if necessary)
- Automating tasks using macros
- the instructor's clear explanations
- We made some really good charts
- The class was never one-sided, there were almost constant questions and answers
- We covered many topics; it was varied and thorough
- A supportive and stimulating learning environment
- Attention-grabbing teaching style
- Personalized content that met our unique needs
- The real-life examples made the curriculum easy-to-understand
- There was a lot of theory, but we also practiced everything
- Pivot tables and their many applications
- The content of the course was very well structured and thorough

6. If your acquaintances/friends were to ask your opinion, what would you say about the course?

- The course shows you the true capabilities of Excel
- It will be easier to do what the boss asked
- Definitely worth attending: I learned a lot.
- An excellent course if you want to learn how to write Excel macros
- Overall, the course is comprehensive, interesting and very practical
- Better choose this
- Be sure to accept it if your company offers it, you'll thank me later!
- Perfect for professionals who want to work more efficiently, not more
- I'm not afraid of functions anymore
- The course is not only practical, but also tailored to the company
- I recommend it because the course was useful, the teacher is competent and flexible
- The course is well structured and develops knowledge step by step
- The instructor makes even the most complex topics easy to understand
